the name of a rural post-office in the Southern part of Lancaster county. It was named in honor of the President when he was Secretary of War in Mr.

postmaster and all the patrons of the office are Democrats. Romulus M. Sanders, for many years treasurer of Lancaster county and a still longer period a prosperous merchant at Whitestone, announces that he will soon return from active business to his estate known as Pope's Castle, where he hopes to spend the rest of his days in well-earned leisure. He voluntarily retired from the office of treasurer at the last election.
